

Goldie, have you been digging in the backyard?

Numbers 32:23 BE SURE YOUR SIN
WILL FIND YOU OUT

If Goldie could speak english, she might say, "what backyard?" or "nope, been standing here the whole time.." or "no way, whatever gave you that idea?" "Did you say we're going for a walk?" or "you look pretty today." :) Goldie obviously can't talk, but she does KNOW it's wrong to dig holes. We dig holes too as human beings with our Master, God. He tells us the rules and we (try) to sneak away and break them. Then we dig deeper holes by lying to try to cover it up. We think we're clever and getting away with something, but ultimately, the sin is written all over our faces from God's perspective. If you are trying to "hide" some sin in your life I encourage you today to STOP hiding, to STOP running from God and simply confess that sin to Him. Get it out in the open. The Bible says in 1 Jn.1:9 "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." Confession will lead to cleansing and cleansing will lead to a right standing with God once again. There's so much more we could say about this subject, suffice it to say, we should all cease to try to hide anything from God, He knows everything already, and He only wants the best for us; He wants us to be clean, He wants us to be free.....

*Excuses, diversions,

In case anyone feels alone in this, here are a couple of other very "famous" people in the Bible who have tried to "hide" their sin from God. MOSES when he killed the Egyptian and buried him in the sand (Exodus 2:14) & King David when he tried to cover up his adultery with murder (2 Samuel 12:9)

I SAY, 'LET'S CONFESS OUR SIN BEFORE IT CONFESSES US' :O

Peace In, Big D:)
