

MY PORTION FOREVER

October 7, 2009

My Portion Forever

You are my Portion
Lord, Forever;
I don't need what this world has to offer; You are my portion Lord, forever; All I need is
You, my God,
forever, and ever;
Forever, and ever,
forever...you are:
*All that I want, YOU
ARE! All that I need!
My sufficiency is in
You, it's in You*
You are my portion,
Lord, forever;
All my confidence is in You;
You are my Portion
Lord, forever;
You are my
strength, my life,
my refuge, You are!
*All that I want, YOU
ARE, all that I need;
my sufficiency is in
You, it's in You....
You are the strength of my life, the reason that I live!
I need You, I love
You, I praise You,
I....adore You;
I .... adore You
forever; forever, and ever forever.*

Then the Lord said..

to Aaron, “You shall have no inheritance in their (sons of Israel) land, nor any portion among them; I AM YOUR PORTION and your INHERITANCE among the Sons of Israel.”

As I read that verse one day, it came to me that I am like Aaron in my serving the Lord on the earth. It's the reason I don't have a "career" in music, or I'm not a lawyer (which I kind of wanted to be). I hope this doesn't sound arrogant, but I believe God wants me (and any gifts He's given to me) to be set apart solely, and 'holy' for HIS use. Every Christian is to be set apart and sanctified for the Lord's use, all of us are His possession as we surrender to Him and He owns us, but still, I had wondered all these years, just as others had wondered and asked me, “why aren't you on the radio?” “Why don't you try out for this contest or that program,” etc.

I can honestly say that those “opportunities” just never came my way, and to be brutally honest, sometimes those questions would creep up on me and make me question the Lord; even feel a little “overlooked” by Him. But over time, I learned to accept what I did not understand. Why? Because I want to please my Lord above all else. I learned to be obedient in the little things, and things I knew I was called to, but there was (at times) this nagging question, “why can't I get a record deal, or earn a living from this 'gift' God has given me, like so many others do?” Most of the time I was alright with it, but sometimes.....especially when someone else was 'rising to the top' I would get like, GRRRRR, what am I? Chopped liver! Ok, ok, now I have the solution, and now I can rest in Him. It took a really long time to get here, I'm not going to lie to you, and it was through many little “battles of the mind” that I arrive at this truth....

That God is my portion forever; I don't need what this world has to offer: title, fame, riches, career, not even success except as it pertains to pleasing my Lord. This is not a punishment that I should be set apart in this way, but rather, it is an honor that I will rest and rejoice in.....while I'm on this earth I will have “no inheritance or portion” among this people, but the LORD GOD is MY PORTION FOREVER.
