- *“Why was Jesus able to be victorious in the midst of the devil’s best attacks? Not because He was God, but because He was obedient to God as a man. Remember, Jesus laid aside ‘His privileges’ as God (see Phil. 2), He did not cease to be God. Perhaps the temptation was that Jesus really COULD turn the stones into bread; He really COULD call a bunch of angels to save Him; He could have made the devil fall down and worship HIM, but He didn’t, He did not use His power. He met the devil as a man, and Jesus prevailed....why? As an example to us. He said, ‘look, I did it, you can too. With My help you can overcome the devil himself...you can win, just trust me.”
- *“The remedy for selfishness is service to others.”
